Legislative Counsel

STATOTHR

1. Mr. Dulles requested me to secure, if possible, a copy of the testimony of [redacted] before the Internal Security Subcommittee of the Senate Judiciary Committee. It is understood that this testimony involved Communism in Africa, and Mr. Dulles suggested that I request Mr. Sourwine for permission to have a copy made available to us because of our concern with Africa and desire to increase our intelligence in that area. Mr. Sourwine informed me that he no longer has an official position with the Subcommittee, being assigned only as Counsel to the Minority of the Senate Judiciary Committee, and that I had best discuss the matter with Mr. Morris, Committee Counsel. Mr. Morris will be available on 11 June.

4. [redacted] has called to complain about delaying a redraft of [redacted]; Subject: Disclosures to the United States Congress, as he feels that a firm regulation is needed at once to prevent the disclosure of information to Congressional Committees. I have informed him that he has no need for concern in this regard, as there will be no such disclosures without the expressed approval of the DCI and that, in my opinion, there was no need at the present time to rush out a redraft of the regulation.
